

SCET2012

Universidad Complutense de Madrid, 27-29 March 2012

Bulletin 2

Dear participants,

Welcome to SCET2012! We can now announce the some important details of the workshop.

Workshop place

The workshop will take place in the Faculty of Mathematics, Aula Miguel de Guzmán, Ground Floor. The nearest Metro Station is Ciudad Universitaria (Line 6, Grey). From the metro station you can either walk (400 m) or take bus number G, 82 which stop in front of the Faculty of Mathematics (3 bus stops after Ciudad Universitaria). Bus stops are usually announced on the bus.

Otherwise from the metro station of Moncloa (Line 6, Grey or Line 3, Yellow) you can take bus number G directly to the Faculty of Mathematics.

All information about transportation is available (in english) at

Hotel Reservation and supports

We provide support for hotels to all participants.

PhD students will be completely supported by us for 3 nights starting on March 26th 2012 in a double room at the Hotel Trip Menfis. In order to be supported the PhD students will have to share the room with a roommate. Please remember to indicate your preferred roommate if any.

All other participants will be supported with one night and part of the second night in one of the Hotel of the following list (the total amount of this “hotel-bonus” is about 120 €, depending on the number of participants). We have booked several rooms in Hotel Trip Menphis. The prices for this special booking are fixed up to February 5th 2012. Whether this hotel is not of your preference we list below some other hotel.

In order to be supported you must book the hotel sending a form by e-mail or fax to the attention of Mrs. Lourdes at ucm@viajeseci.es, specifying the type of accommodation that you require. In the email please remember to cite your arrival and departure dates. The form for hotel reservation can be found on our web page.

Conference Fees

In order to complete the registration the participants are requested the payment of a conference fee. We have tried to keep the fee as low as possible and we have prompted several possible types of fees. The “Basic” one includes just the welcome cocktail. The “Medium” fee includes also lunches, and finally the “Complete” fee will include the conference dinner. We invite all participants to pay the fee before 1st March 2012. In order to pay the fee download the fee-form from our web site and follow the instructions therein. Notice that the fee cannot be paid in cash.

Conference cocktail, lunches and dinner

The welcome cocktail will take place in the Faculty of Mathematics, 3rd Floor, in the Professors’ s bar, on 26th March 2012, from about 18:30 to 21.

The conference lunches will take place in the cafeteria of the Faculty of Physics (which is in front of the Faculty of Mathematics). Lunches include two courses, drinks, dessert, coffee. People with special requests (vegetarians, celiac, any allergy, ..) are invited to communicate that.

Notice that around the Faculties there are just the Faculties cafeterias which are shared by students.

The conference dinner will be held in the Bokado Restaurant, which is inside the “Museo del Traje” (Costume Museum), a very nice structure very close to the conference place. You can cancel your participation to the conference dinner at any date up to March 20th 2012. After that date we cannot refund the money of the conference dinner. Accompanying persons are charged 60€.

Registration and fee payment

The registration consists in 3 steps: 1) You have to create an Indico account 2) You have to register on line to the workshop 3) You have to pay the fee, filling a second form with bank transfer/credit card details and send it to the “Fundación General UCM” by e-mail or fax. This second form is on our web site together with the instructions for filling it. We do not accept cash payments.
